Digital photographs of How did Steve inspire you to share his passion?

Cropped photos are eligible. Minor adjustments, including spotting, dodging and burning, sharpening, contrast and slight colour adjustment or the digital equivalents, are acceptable. If our judges see that a photographer has obviously altered his or her photo, they reserve the right to disqualify it. Photographs that have won any other contests or have been published in magazines and newspapers (except online) are not eligible. We define winning as having won a grand prize or 1st place overall. Photos that violate or infringe upon another person's rights, including copyright, are not eligible.

1. If the winner has specified they wish to collect their prize from Australia Zoo, all prizes must be collected within 3 months from the date of winning. After that time, unclaimed prizes will be dealt with according to legislative requirements. Australia Zoo will not notify winners of time remaining, to collect their prize. It is the sole responsibility of winners to collect their prize.
2. Prizes must be claimed in person unless winner is otherwise advised. Identification which includes a photograph will be required (examples include drivers license/passport/student card where photo included).
3. Where Australia Zoo elects to post a prize to a winner no responsibility will be accepted by Australia Zoo for the safe and effective postal delivery of the prize.
4. In special situations, and subject to the absolute discretion of Australia Zoo, a winner may nominate a designated representative to collect a prize. The representative will be required to present written authorisation from the winner and identification which includes a photograph for both the winner and their representative.
5. In the event that a winner chooses not to accept a prize, they forfeit any and all claims to that prize, which will be dealt with according to the absolute discretion of Australia Zoo subject to legislative requirements.
